Compassionate Care Group Homes, CCGH, provides an independent residential living for adults with intellectual disabilities. They offer in-home support services to these individuals. They will provide assistance to patients who wish to recover at home, and to those who struggle in living independently so that they may be able to get the assistance that they need. Their services include but are not limited to:

- independent daily living skills
- medication management
- meal preparation
- companion service
- personal care
- respite care
