Smiles Like Yours LLC is a non-centered day service provider that specializes in Day Support Services. Their day support, group day services are just like their community engagement which is elite activities hosted by members within the community. They were created to develop person-centered events for people with developmental disabilities. The events are held in the community and led by professionals and volunteers. Members are able to build upon their skill set and create long lasting relationships. Group Day services are provided to a large group of members, offering ratios of one-to-seven.
