

Easy-to-Read Drug Facts

The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) provides this Easy-to-Read Drug Facts website is here to help you understand drugs and addiction. Maybe you are dealing with a drug addiction. Maybe it's happening to someone you love. Maybe you just want to learn about drugs.

We are here to help you learn about:

- drugs that people use or misuse
- how drugs can affect your life
- addiction
- treatment and recovery
- how to stop people from using drugs before they start
- and more

Explore the website. We want to help you understand this complicated information. You can look at videos or choose to listen to information about various addiction and treatment topics.

You can call 1-800-662-HELP (4357) at any time to find drug treatment centers near you.

Article Source

National Institute on Drug Abuse

Source URL

<https://easyread.drugabuse.gov>

Last Reviewed

Tuesday, October 20, 2020