

Date Night, Free Virtual Theatre Production to support RAM House

Date and Time

Monday 11/23/2020 8:00am

Event URL

<http://nonprofitroanoke.org/event/date-night/>

Event Region

Roanoke Valley

Event Type

Community event

Event Cost

$0.00

Event Description

“Date Night” is a tragicomedy gospel musical that addresses themes of loss, grief, and faith in a humorous and dramatic theater production. The play will be streamed on Blue Ridge PBS and RAM House Youtube channels. Streaming is free, but donations are encouraged, as 100% of the proceeds will go to RAM House’s efforts to fight homelessness and hunger in the Blue Ridge Region. To learn more about the event and RAM house, go to: Raminc.org Plot: Where was God when Nettie lost her husband? Every wedding anniversary since his death, Nettie sets the table for the date night she would have had with her husband. This year though, Nettie receives a series of visitors sent to deliver her a message. Who will show up for date night? Watch the play to find out! “Date Night” is written by a Roanoke local, and award-winning gospel artist and playwright, Dana Grace Pannell. Learn more about Dana’s work at simplygraceproductions.com Dates: November 21st, 2020 to December 31st, 2020 During these dates, the play will be accessible anytime on RAM House YouTube channel. It will livestream on Blue Ridge PBS YouTube stations at specific times that are TBD. Event is completely virtual: RAM House Youtube channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCWb_5RLvuGmNv_QrDQ18eLw AND Blue Ridge Streaming – Blue Ridge PBS YouTube channel <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=m75PQocQyZ8> Call 573-353-6103f or email marche@draminc.org for more information or with questions