Family Support Services is to prepare individuals and their families for life's transitions by developing a plan that will support them through planned and unexpected life changes. The program's philosophy is that having a plan in place provides peace of mind by preventing crises from happening, providing a safety net if a crisis does arise, and preparing families to better respond to difficult transitions.

Family Support Services is open to people with disabilities, veterans, seniors, and their families. Services provided include:

- Helping families maintain their person's records of needs and resources
- Resource linkages
- Education and consultation
- Community outreach and family workshops
- Benefits counseling
- Feedback from the Family Advisory Council
