

Community & Health Advocacy Training (CHAT)

Age Requirements

No Age Requirement

Intake Contact Email

brandtj@vcu.edu

Intake Process

Please call for more information. To schedule a training or learn more about CHAT please contact brandtj@vcu.edu

Intake Contact Telephone

(804) 828-3876

Partnership for People with Disabilities

<https://cdl.partnership.vcu.edu/>

<https://cdl.partnership.vcu.edu/health-advocacy-training-chat/>

Main

(804) 828-3876

700 East Franklin Street, 1st Floor

Suite 140

23219 VA

United States

Fee Structure

No Fee

,

Call for Information

VCU's Center for Disability Leadership offers Community and Health Advocacy Training (CHAT). This provides health literacy training to adults with disabilities. CHAT has two parts; training for adults with disabilities, and a guide for supporters and families.

The training is a 90-minute session for a group of 8-13 adults with intellectual/development disabilities within a two-hour distance from Richmond, Virginia.

Service Area(s)

Statewide