

Emergency Preparedness Resources for People with Disabilities

The University of Cincinnati Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCCEDD) has created emergency prepared resources for people with disabilities, caregivers, and first responders.

This initiative provides insight into local hazards and how people living with disabilities can best prepare for them, as well as best practices surrounding disaster preparations and planning.

Resources, Videos, Guides, and Tool Kits

Disaster Preparedness (Videos)

Emergency Responders and How they Interact with People with Disabilities: First Responders answer questions from individuals with disabilities (Video)

Emergency Responders and How they Interact with People with Disabilities: Individuals with disabilities answer questions from First Responders (Video)

A Resource for Medical Care Providers Serving Individuals with Paralysis

Know Your Rights When Preparing for an Emergency - for Individuals with Paralysis

Creating an Emergency Preparedness Plan with Your Caregiver

Disaster Preparedness for People with Disabilities: Impact Areas of Disasters

Creating Your Emergency Kit

► For more information go to Emergency Preparedness

Article Source

University of Cincinnati Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities

Source URL

<https://www.ucucedd.org>

Last Reviewed

Wednesday, November 8, 2023