Grafton Integrated Health Network provides an integrated continuum of care. At the residential locations, short-term stabilization, residential services, technical and career training, and more are available to qualified individuals.

Autism services are available as well as services for early intervention services for children with developmental disabilities. Grafton's therapeutic day schools provide comprehensive, structured and customized educational services for students aged six to 22.

Community group homes help adults with adaptive skills that are necessary to increase self-autonomy and build healthy relationships.

Transportation may be available for program participants. Please call the office
