Community-based programming is offered for neurodivergent young adults at a church in Springfield, VA. Participants bring their 1:1 attendant as well as a packed lunch. Hours are 9:30 am - 2:30 pm Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Families can choose 1, 2, or 3-day programming. Programming is geared to address sensory and communication issues associated with autism. "Campers" are out in the community every day walking and participating in activities to include:

- arts and crafts
- cooking
- recreation and vocational

Visual aides are utilized to review the day's activities and the daily agenda is sent to families/campers the day prior.
