We Help provides hourly in-home drop-in support services to individuals with Developmental Disabilities. We Help implements Individual Service Plans, that consist with assistance of an array of activities and daily living.

We Help provides support in the home for people living in their own home and/or with family members/Guardian. Services are based on the needs of the Individual (person-centered). Supported Home Living also helps develop and improve community living skills. Support is available for individuals who have intellectual or developmental disabilities. Participants also have a co-occurring diagnosis, behavioral challenges or hearing impairments or visual. Services are also available for individuals who are non-ambulatory, limited in mobility, adults who are geriatric or show signs of premature aging or who are on the autism spectrum.

We Help services may include training and support necessary for the person to maintain personal care and social skills, and complete independent living tasks.
