Family Care Services is a veteran-owned sponsored residential care agency that works to enhance the lives of loved ones with developmental disabilities in the Hampton Roads community of Virginia.

Staff provide services such as Sponsor care placement, Day support, Community Coaching, and Community Engagement. Family Care Services seeks to enrich the lives of adults with disabilities by providing a safe and enjoyable place to spend the day. Day Support Programs are an essential addition to family support or residential care for many individuals.

Each of our community support services provide a wide variety of task-learning skills, including interactive training, social skills development, computer and internet skills, technology training, arts and music therapy, sensory stimulation activities, communication enhancement and safety skills training.
