

Transition to Adulthood

The transition to adulthood for youth with disabilities involves moving from secondary school to adult life, college and/or employment; from pediatric to adult health care providers and settings; and from more restrictive to less restrictive settings.

---

View PDF