

Self-Determination

Self-determination means that people with disabilities have the same rights and responsibilities as everyone else. They are entitled to equal opportunities, respect, support, and authority to exert control in their lives, to direct their services, to make decisions, and to act on their own behalf.

View PDF